

PAUL ON WEALTH

2 Corinthians 8

2 Cor. 8:1

We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that was given to the churches of Macedonia.

2 Cor. 8:2

During a severe trial brought about by affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part.

2 Cor. 8:3

I can testify that, according to their ability and even beyond their ability, they gave of their own accord.

2 Cor. 8:4

They begged us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in the ministry to the saints.

2 Cor. 8:5

And not just as we had hoped. Instead, they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us by God's will.

2 Cor. 8:6

So we urged Titus that just as he had begun, so he should also complete among you this act of grace.

2 Cor. 8:10

And in this matter I am giving advice because it is profitable for you, who began last year not only to do something but also to want to do it.

2 Cor. 8:11

Now also finish the task, so that just as there was an eager desire, there may also be a completion, according to what you have.

2 Cor. 8:12

For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have.

2 Cor. 8:13

It is not that there should be relief for others and hardship for you, but it is a question of equality.

2 Cor. 8:14

At the present time your surplus is available for their need, so that their abundance may in turn meet your need, in order that there may be equality.

2 Cor. 8:15

As it is written: The person who had much did not have too much, and the person who had little did not have too little.
