

Offerstories

Afterschool Program

Some think that the church is just about what happens on Sunday. But as the pastor, I can't tell you just how proud I am to see what God does all week long.

One of the things that happens begins right after school when we have lots of kids exiting a school bus and joining some of our members for an afterschool program called NEXT. Every child gets tutoring, a snack and lots of time to play games and develop relationships with a number of our members. Since we've started this program we've had two families join our church and another student pray to accept Jesus as his Savior. And as you give your tithes and offerings to the Lord, you are a part of this ministry. You give and we're able to offer refreshments, computer access with adult supervision, and transportation from the school to our place. Our afterschool program begins right here and right now so let's prepare our hearts as our ushers come forward ...