

Offerstories

Mission Team

God has called our church to reach our town but he's also given us an opportunity to give and go – to be a part of the Great Commission. Last week we had a small group of members hop on a flight to Romania where they ministered to orphans and shared the love of Christ to people halfway across the world. They'd been planning the trip for 18 months and they came back completely changed. They also got to meet missionaries from the International Mission Board.

When you place your envelope, your check or your money into the plate this morning remember how much it means to people all around the world – people our team got to meet. Remember not only those missionaries but all the missionaries that we support. The team is ready to return soon. Your tithes and offerings help make that a reality. That's why we set aside this time in the service. It's perhaps the greatest dynamic of worship. When we give back to God a portion of what's He's given us, we're saying, "God, you are the most important part of my life." Let's bow for prayer as we prepare to receive your offerings ...