

Offerstories

Sunday School

We don't think about it often, but every week in our small groups and Sunday School classes we offer an opportunity for all of our members to encounter God's word. We're so thankful that we can offer every person who attends free resources like study guides and leader guides. Last week we saw a 9-year-old girl who was visiting our church accept Christ. Her name is Cindy and she came with her friend, Amy. Isn't it great when children lead in inviting? She's an inspiration!

Your gifts to the Lord during this time help ensure that we have the tools to share the gospel and disciple our members. It keeps the lights on, trains our teachers, and makes sure that everybody who walks through our doors has an opportunity to make the most important decision they will ever make. And it starts at this time in our service when we give back a portion of what God has provided for us. Let's pray as our ushers come forward to receive your offerings ...
