Gift Box Distribution and Tent Revival – Please read before you enlist volunteers.

Please pray about you and your group's participation this year. The logistics of the weekend require that we approach the weekend in fresh ways. Rotation groups are no larger than 30 persons.

- Volunteers for gift box distribution and/or revival team must be 18 years of age or older.
- Gift box distribution will be held at two different sites on the same day, requiring two separate teams: Friday morning at Hunt, St. Gabriel and Friday afternoon at Jetson, Baker. (Note: Only 15 volunteers will be allowed on these teams.)
- We are permitted to have no more than 30 persons inside the compound at any one time during the revival times. This means smaller base team and/or tighter rotation schedules. (See addresses at the bottom of next page.)

- Gift Box and revival team volunteers at Jetson, Baker must be able to step high up into a van for transportation from the gate to the revival site within the compound. (No wheelchairs or walkers can be permitted.)

Volunteers for Gift Box Distribution and/or revival teams must complete security clearance forms and be approved for entrance and participation at the prison site.

Security clearance form packet will be emailed to the Group Leader (or individual if you are coming alone) upon our receipt of this request form. Group Leaders will be expected to print and distribute security clearance forms to group members. If at all possible, please return clearance forms in one envelope.

- Completed security clearance forms must be received in the WMM office no later than July 25, 2019. (Faxed or emailed copies will not be accepted and all forms must be signed as requested with witness signature.)
- 2019 revival plan includes two worship services on Saturday, plus Saturday afternoon visitation, and one service on Sunday morning.
