Judging

A drill leader (conductor), three regular point judges, a bonus point judge, and a timekeeper are used. Each judge will score all participants, maximum of 12. In scoring, when there's a question, the judging team will give the driller the benefit of the doubt.

The conductor is the only one that confirms a memory response by "That is Correct" or "Please try again" (one extra chance only). If a driller cannot give the proper response, the conductor will ask the group to respond in unison. If the group is a mixed group, the conductor will give the correct response. All other judging issues are the responsibility of the judges and the conductor will refrain from any comments of any kind in reference to mistakes during the drill.

Regular point judges will indicate a correct response by leaving the box blank. Judges will place a number (1-5) in the appropriate box to indicate a mistake. Each regular point judge will score the entire group.

Bonus Point Judge — On each call, one bonus point is scored by the participant who steps out first. In case of a tie, bonus points are given to each. The judge scoring bonus points will place a 1 in the appropriate box. If a person receiving a bonus point makes a mistake, cancel it with an X.

NOTE: Regular points are totaled & averaged then bonus points added.

Mistakes

1. Fails to STEP FORWARD within 8 seconds.
2. Gives an INCORRECT RESPONSE (includes any driller who raises a hand indicating an error). It is an error to step out, then step back, then step out again even if it is in the allotted time.
3. Fails to STAND STRAIGHT, keep his EYES ON THE CONDUCTOR, or BEGINS ANY MOVEMENT before the command "Start" is given.
4. Steps forward before the INDEX FINGER is on the correct response.
5. Fails to handle the Bible according to instructions or ABUSES THE BIBLE.

NOTE: At each drill level, scores are totaled, then averaged before bonus points are added.

Drill Commands

In conducting a Bible Drill, conductors will use the following commands:

"Attention" - The participants will stand erect with one foot not extended in front of the other, hands by side, head up, eyes on the conductor, and Bible in either hand at side, spine side down.

"Present Bibles" - Participants bring the Bible to waistline. The Bible should be parallel to the floor with one hand flat on the top and one hand flat on the bottom with no thumbs or fingers extending over the edges. Following "Present Bibles", the conductor announces the call. The call is stated twice, and no questions can be asked after the second call.

"Start" - This command is the signal for participants to begin searching. In the Book Drill, the index finger must be placed upon any verse in that book. In other drills, the driller finds the verse, places his index finger on the verse, and steps forward. It is a mistake to begin any movement before "Start" is called.

"Time" - A timekeeper calls out the word "time" at the end of 8 seconds. The full 8 seconds is given on each call. There is to be no "All Out" called to shorten the drill. This is to allow the participant the full measure of time to collect his thoughts before being called upon. No one may step forward after "time" is called, and all participants should stop searching. (When time is called, in the Bible answers drill, the conductor will instruct the drillers to close their Bibles). The conductor will call upon one driller to respond. A participant will be expected to raise his hand when he has the wrong reference whether called upon or not.

"Attention" - The conductor gives the command "Attention". The drillers return to their original positions, Bibles held at side, spine side down.
