2024-2025 CHURCH PLANNING GUIDE

We are Here for You

I trust all is well with you, your family, and your church as you map out plans for a new year. I'm praying God gives you fresh eyes as you reach those around you and beyond.

Speaking of those around us, in a report I shared with the Executive Board, I noted what I called "Inescapable Truths About the People Who Live Among Us." I believe these are true no matter where you live or the size of your congregation. You'll find these truths in Acts 17.

The first thing I notice about those living among us is that they are religious. Verse 22 says, "I see that you are extremely religious." Sound familiar?

Then, Paul continues by saying in verse 26, "... he has made every nationality to live over the whole earth and has determined their appointed times and the boundaries of where they live." Realize that God appointed the lost to live among us at this time and in this place. Our proximity to the lost is not accidental.

We get a picture of God's heart for the lost among us in verse 27, "He did this so that they might seek God, and perhaps they might reach out and find him, though he is not far from each one of us." God desires to have a relationship with those who don't know Him.

As wonderful as that sounds, it's true. The reality of what lies ahead for the lost is found in verse 31 – they will face judgement, "... because he has set a day when he is going to judge the world..."

Ultimately, this means each person will have to make a decision about Jesus. Luke records the responses of the people in verse 32, "... some began to ridicule him, but others said, 'We'd like to hear from you again about this.'"

In the end, reaching the lost became personal for Paul as he mentions names and faces in verse 34. Even as you read this, the names and faces of the lost around you may come to mind.

All of this begins with a burden. Verse 16 notes, "he was deeply distressed when he saw that the city was full of idols." If we're going to establish a culture of evangelism in Louisiana, we must have a burden for those around us.

The good news is God promises the harvest is plentiful – we just need to pray for laborers to gather what He's prepared.

Remember, we (Louisiana Baptists) are Here for You to help you seek the lost, strengthen your church, and support cooperative missions and ministries that fuel our efforts in Louisiana and beyond.

Keep looking up!

“Can God please save me today?
I WANT TO BE SAVED.”
ACTUAL HERE FOR YOU RESPONSE

God is using your church to reach people with His truth!

Your gifts through the Georgia Barnette Louisiana Missions Offering and the Cooperative Program empower this effort to creatively and consistently insert God's truth in hearts and homes across Louisiana.
