2025-2026 CHURCH PLANNING GUIDE

The Culture is Catching On

I recently had the opportunity to share with the leadership of a local church regarding reaching their area for Christ. As I listened to their plans, I was excited to hear that this "culture of evangelism" which I've been speaking about for a couple of years appears to be catching on!

During my report to the Executive Board, I was able to share about the upswing in baptisms, the decisions recorded through YEC, church planting, our Here for You multi-media outreach campaign, and the recent 3:16 on 3/16 emphasis - all of which indicate we're beginning to see God move in a special way, in a much-needed way in our state.

As you dream and plan for the next year or so of ministry, I pray you'll ask yourselves this question, "How can God use us to feed this culture of evangelism in our church? In our area? Across Louisiana?"

Here are a few truths from Acts 8 that I pray you'll keep in mind as you plan:

- Every one of you is an evangelist. It's not just the preacher's job. Everyone has the responsibility and opportunity to be salt and light.
- Every person you plan to engage through your ministries can be saved – if you provide the opportunity.
- Ask yourselves, how can we saturate our friends, family and neighbors with opportunities to hear the Gospel?

I'm praying God will empower us to see 10,000 or more baptisms in Louisiana in the coming year. Will you join me in working and praying towards this end?

Keep looking up!
