What is the Cooperative Program?

Who does it impact? Where does it go?

THE "TO"
TO & THRU BEGINS WITH YOU:

THROUGH gifts TO our local church, the and represents 1/10th of the God has provided.

generosity supports ministries THROUGH your church.

"...for ye shall be rich in good works, to do which is the will of God." (1 Tim. 6:18) (C.S.B.)

THE "THRU"
TO & THRU CONTINUES WITH YOUR CHURCH:

Using your gifts, your church prepares and adopts a budget THROUGH which you bless and reach others beyond your walls.

Your church commits a portion or percentage of your gifts and forwards them THROUGH the Cooperative Program (CP) for missions and ministries in Louisiana and beyond.

Your church elects messengers each year who attend the Annual Meeting of the Louisiana Baptist Convention (LBC).

Messengers decide what percentage of your CP gifts stay in Louisiana for state missions and ministries and what percentage is forwarded to the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC).

The gifts given TO your church and forwarded THROUGH CP undergird the ministries and missions of:

LOUISIANA BAPTISTS
SBC's Missionary

LOUISIANA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

THE MESSAGE
Share the Message

The gifts given TO your church and forwarded THROUGH CP also support the broader missions and ministries of the SBC including:

IMB, NAMB, ERLC, SBC Executive Committee, Six Seminaries: Gateway, Midwestern, New Orleans, Southern, Southeastern, and Southwestern

WHY CP
THE GENESIS OF CP
Since its formation in 1945, Louisiana Baptists have been blessed by the vision of a cooperative effort to support the work of the SBC. This vision has been realized through the generous support of Louisiana Baptists.

¿POR QUÉ EL CP?
EL GÉNESIS DE LA COOP
Desde su fundación en 1945, los bautistas de Louisiana han sido bendecidos por la visión de un esfuerzo cooperativo para apoyar el trabajo de la SBC. Esta visión se ha realizado a través del apoyo generoso de los bautistas de Louisiana.

2026-2027 CHURCH PLANNING GUIDE

Redeeming the Time

The Apostle Paul instructed the Ephesians with these timeless words: "See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil." (Ephesians 5:15-16)

These words from Paul seem to speak to us as we plan or "coordinate" our church calendars. "The days are evil" is without debate. Therefore, the instruction to walk circumspectly and redeem the time is urgent.

The word for "redeem" was and is a business term. Goods and/or slaves were redeemed. The word for "time" is not so much the seconds and minutes, but the era of time. You could easily understand this to be your life—the time on earth that God has given you (or any other large portion of time—the time that you have as a parent, the time that you have as a student, the time that you have as an employee of such and such a place, the time that you will be a resident of your home—all of these can be large units of time). For more specific application, we can think of time in terms of one year. As we begin this new church year, what will we do with this time? What is the only way to redeem time? The only way is "to make the most of it" while we have it, thus the translation in many English texts.

The context of Paul's instructions certainly points to ways to redeem the time. We always make good use of time when we give ourselves to the wisdom of God found in His word. We always make the most of time when we live our lives in the will of God. Moreover, we always make the most of time when we give attention to worship. Being in right relationship with those God has placed around us is a wise use of time.

Since redeem is a word from the financial world, we immediately think of a budget. To make the wisest use of our money, we practice sound budgeting principles. Logically, to make the most of our time, we must practice sound time management principles and plan our work well.

Our prayer for this Coordinate guide is that seeing the ministries and dates of our larger cooperative work will help every church and every church leader to budget so as to "make the most of time." Here, you will find the dates of major events and meetings. In the front, you will find the names and contact information for many who can help you. Call on them!

I am praying that God will use all of us. The days are evil. The days are urgent. Life is but a vapor. It appears for a little while and then vanishes away. (James 4:14) I look forward to seeing you at the points where and when our plans intersect.

Keep looking up!

SINCE 2019 LOUISIANA BAPTISTS
HAVE BEEN SEEDING GOD'S TRUTH IN HEARTS AND HOMES
ACROSS THE STATE.

The kingdom of God is like this...
a man scatters seed on the ground...

Mark 4:27, HCSB

2025 Seeding Summary:

- 8283 views of the Gospel presentation
- 70% of households reached*
- 198 searches for local churches
